What do we do?

We make children happy!

Under our own brand alldoro, we sell a wide variety of toys for the whole family. alldoro is an acronym of "Alles Doris Roser", the mother of the founder Manfred Roser.

With our extensive assortment of currently about 150 articles, we have specialized in the area of outdoor and occupational toys. Our educational toys are suitable for children of all ages.

Our main focus is on fun, activity and movement. In the development and selection of articles, we pay attention to products suitable for children, which give pleasure and support young people in their development.

We actively participate in the market and offer you and your customers the latest trends and innovations in the toy industry.

Where are our products used?

- At home, in the children's room, in the living room
- outside in the garden, in the park, at the beach or at the pool
- at children's parties, summer parties, children's birthday parties, weddings
- in kindergartens and other day care facilities for children
- at sports lessons in schools
- at social and educational institutions and clubs
- in the waiting room at the doctor
- in speech therapy, occupational therapy and physiotherapy practices
- in children's play areas in many hotels

For whom are our products suitable?

Short answer: for everyone!

Because playing is an important part of life, it keeps you young and brings joy to life.

Our toys appeal to people of all ages - our panorama spinning tops make the eyes of toddlers from 18 months shine, schoolchildren learn about the world with our interactive globes, and the whole family experiences huge fun with our XXL games.
